

Oilsands Quest Obtains Court Approval for Asset Purchase Agreement with Cenovus Energy Inc.; Extends Creditor Protection

02.10.2012 | CNW

CALGARY, Oct. 2, 2012 - Today Oilsands Quest Inc. ("OQI") has requested and obtained an Order from the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench (the "Court") approving an Asset Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") that provides for the sale of substantially all of the assets of OQI to Cenovus Energy Inc. ("Cenovus"). The Purchase Agreement was entered into by OQI's court-appointed monitor, Ernst and Young Inc., on behalf of OQI and its subsidiaries as vendors with Cenovus as purchaser. OQI also obtained an Order from the Court extending creditor protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) ("CCAA") until November 30, 2012, unless further extended as required and approved by the Court. The Purchase Agreement provides for a cash purchase price of $10,000,000, payable at closing, plus the assumption of reclamation and other environmental liabilities, and is subject to certain post-closing adjustments. Closing is expected to occur on or about October 12, 2012.

In the filings made in connection with the Order approving the Purchase Agreement and extending the stay to facilitate closing of the transaction, it was noted by Monitor's counsel that, although the total of the purchase price contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and the proceeds received from the Eagles Nest properties earlier this year is substantially less than the approximately $167 million value estimated by OQI for its assets at the time the CCAA proceedings were commenced in November 2011, both the Monitor and TD Securities Inc., OQI's financial advisor, are satisfied that the transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement represents the best available recovery for OQI's remaining assets. It is expected that shareholders of OQI will receive only a nominal distribution on their common shares following completion of the transaction and settlement of all creditor claims. Copies of the Court filings and related materials are available on the website of the Monitor at www.ey.com/ca/oilsandsquest.

TD Securities Inc. acted as the court approved financial advisor to assist OQI and the Monitor in conducting the solicitation and sale process.
