Professional Geologist Brings Increased Depth and Experience to Graphite Team

ELKO, Nov 1, 2012 - Graphite Corp. (OTCQB: GRPH) ("Graphite Corp." or the "Company"), an exploration stage company focused on the evaluation, acquisition and development of domestic graphite mining opportunities, is pleased to announce the appointment, effective immediately, of Mr. Jason D. Babcock to the Company's Board of Directors.

Mr. Babcock (age 40) brings over 15 years direct experience as a professional exploration geologist with particular expertise in Project Management and GIS-based field geological mapping. He offers a proven technical background alongside excellent problem-solving capabilities. Since 2011 he served in the capacity of Senior Geologist and Project Manager for Navaho Gold on 7 Nevada-based joint venture gold exploration projects. During this period, he aided in generating a number of new exploration projects as well as managing extensive drilling operations including deep diamond drill programs. Prior to this Mr. Babcock worked from 2009 to 2011 for Fronteer Gold, participating in their Nevada-based Long Canyon and Northumberland Projects including various endeavors on related Carlin Trend efforts. From 2003 to 2008 he was Principal Field Geologist and Project Manager for Gateway Gold Corporation overseeing Nevada field efforts and data collection for an over $10 million drilling operation. Since 1991, he has enjoyed building his career as a geologist with a number of major operators including BHP Minerals, Kennecott Exploration and Kinross Gold USA. His broad experiences have provided an in-depth understanding and expertise in the exploration for and delineation of mineral, base metals, and precious metals deposits. He is an active member of the Society of Economic Geologists, Northwest Mining Association and the Geological Society of Nevada. Mr. Babcock earned both his M.S. Geology (2007) and B.S. Geology (1996) at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City.

Graphite Corp. President Brian Goss states, "I am very pleased by this appointment and wish to welcome Mr. Babcock to our growing team. As we are in the business of exploration it was my desire to build our team from the perspective of technical skills and field expertise. Jason completely fits the bill and we are sure will jump in with both feet in order to ramp up our efforts to identify and acquire a significant domestic graphite position that places us at the head of the field in this breakout market."
