

First Colombia Gold Announces New Leasing Program

25.07.2014 | GlobeNewswire

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 25, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Newly appointed President Clarence Parks announced today that First Colombia Gold Corp. (OTCQB:FCGD) has rolled out the first model of its new leasing program. In doing so, Parks stated "We have acquired 1,114 acres of land, which increases our existing acreage from 3,819 acres to 4,933 acres. This is very exciting news, as we increase our lease holds by over 30%."

Parks added, "To date we have already acquired nine additional leases valued at over $200K."

CEO Dr. Robert Gates stated, "We are being very aggressive in seeking out lease purchases and acquisitions, which will increase cash flow and revenue to our company. In just a few months, we have added almost $5 million in assets and have created a revenue stream to continue to build from."

Dr. Gates also stated, "This truly shows our commitment to production within this region and I am sure demonstrates how serious we are about the drilling programs we are currently implementing. We are looking for big production numbers to show to the public and our shareholders in the coming months."
