

Gold Mining USA Adopts Plan for Enhanced Reporting

30.06.2014 | GlobeNewswire

SACRAMENTO, June 30, 2014 - Gold Mining USA, Inc. ("Gold Mining USA" or the "Company") (OTC:GMUI) today announced management's plans to conduct and then publish additional due diligence on the business, assets (resources and reserves), legal, tax, actual and contingent liabilities, operations, and condition of the Company, which includes in its scope, the Company's expectation of making available higher-quality financial reporting.

The Company is currently in ongoing discussions with third-party investors, risk-transfer consultants, investment bankers, and potential investees concerning the Company's prospects for the future, its access to capital, the appetite of insurance markets to accept and manage risk from the Company, the availability of future business opportunities to the Company and advisable capital restructuring possibilities.

This plan was adopted by management today in light of its recent acquisition of additional assets and underscores the Company's commitment to attempt to reduce acquisition risk, enhance its standard of reporting, and appropriately manage investor expectations. In addition to reporting consultants, an independent auditing firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board will be engaged within the next week to publish its report to the Board of Directors of the Company.

The audit planning is for this independent report to be made available and filed with OTC Markets Group not later than August 14, 2014. The Company approved within this plan management's intent to, at the time of publication, make any and all recommended or required revisions to Gold Mining USA's financial statements.
