Chaparral Gold Provides Update on Consideration Payable in Plan of Arrangement

30.12.2014 | GlobeNewswire

SCOTTSDALE, Dec. 30, 2014 - Chaparral Gold Corp. ("Chaparral") (TSX:CHL) provides an update with respect to the consideration payable in the plan of arrangement transaction (the "Arrangement") with Goldrock Mines Corp., Waterton Precious Metals Fund II Cayman, LP ("Fund II") and Waterton Precious Metals Bid Corp. The Arrangement provides that in the event that Chaparral receives the US$5 million installment of the receivable relating to the Rio Blanco property in Ecuador (the "Receivable") on or before December 29, 2014, the consideration payable to shareholders of Chaparral will be increased by $0.02 per share in cash from $0.61 to $0.63 per share. The US$5 million installment payment has not been received and therefore the additional $0.02 in consideration will not be paid. The Company has commenced initial legal proceedings to recover the US$5 million payment.

Chaparral has not yet received the required consent to assign the Receivable to Fund II. This condition may be waived by Goldrock, Waterton and Fund II, at their sole discretion. If the Junefield consent is not received by February 2, 2015 then the Arrangement may be terminated by any party thereto. The Company continues to work to obtain the Junefield consent.
