Update on Hall Lake Project

Further to our news release of December 10, 2014, Eagle Plains has received 100,000 common shares of Bethpage Capital Corp. as per the amended terms of the Hall Lake Project option agreement. This effectively increases the aggregate share issuance to 1.1 million common shares payable to Eagle Plains.

About Eagle Plains Resources

Based in Cranbrook, B.C., Eagle Plains continues to conduct research, acquire and explore mineral projects throughout western Canada. Since 1992, the company has been acquiring and developing early-stage projects utilizing an in-house team of geologists, technicians and specialists. Considered a prolific project generator with over 50 properties, Eagle Plains invites joint-venture participation to expedite development, reduce risk and enhance exposure to discovery.

Current third-party agreements if maintained to completion will have exposed Eagle Plains to over $35M in exploration expenditures, $3.9M cash and 12M shares in partner companies. Completed agreements have yielded over $27M in exploration spending, $2.0M cash to Eagle Plains and a total of 22M shares of partner companies Expenditures from 2011-2014 on Eagle Plains-related projects were approximately $16M, which was funded by Eagle Plains and for the most part, by third-party partners. This exploration work resulted in approximately 15,000m of diamond-drilling and extensive ground-based exploration work facilitating the advancement of more than 23 projects at various stages of development.

On behalf of the Board of Directors
