

KELOWNA, BRITISH COLUMBIA--(Marketwired - Nov 30, 2015) - Fission Uranium Corp. (TSX:FCU)(OTCQX:FCUUF)(FRANKFURT:2FU) ("Fission" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that Institutional Shareholder Services ("ISS"), the leading proxy advisory firm, has published a report recommending that shareholders vote FOR all resolutions including the board's proposed director nominees at Fission's upcoming annual meeting to be held on December 15, 2015. Fission's management information circular for the meeting can be found on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

Welcoming the recommendations, Dev Randhawa, Fission's Chairman and CEO, said: "We are glad to see that ISS, the leading independent proxy advisory firm, recommends that our shareholders vote for all resolutions including the board's proposed nominees. Fission's board of directors and management believe that we are on the right track with strong positive momentum and a once in a lifetime asset that will provide long-term value for all shareholders."

In making its recommendation that Fission shareholders vote FOR the board's proposed nominees, ISS states that "the board is structured to provide accountability and independent oversight which is consistent with market practices". ISS further states, "the board as a whole is majority independent and has established all expected key committees and is entirely independent". With respect to the amendment of By-Law No. 1, ISS recommends that shareholders "vote FOR the proposed by-law as no significant governance concerns have been identified at this time" and "no problematic provisions have been identified within the proposed advance notice provision".

Attention Fission shareholders:

Be sure to vote your BLUE proxy before Friday, December 11, 2015 at 11:00 AM (Vancouver time) / 2:00 PM (Toronto time).

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release to shareholders contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation (forward-looking information and forward-looking statements being collectively herein after referred to as "forward-looking statements") that are based on expectations, estimates and projections as at the date of this letter. These forward-looking statements include but are not limited to: statements relating to strategies designed to accelerate shareholder value; continued development of the PLS and its Triple R Deposit; future financial or operating performance of Fission; anticipated developments in operations; and success of exploration activities. These forward-looking statements are based on the beliefs of Fission's management, as well as on assumptions which such management believes to be reasonable based on information currently available at the time such statements were made. Such assumptions include, but are not limited to, assumptions about; general business and economic conditions; the supply and demand, and the level and volatility of, the price of uranium; changes in credit markets and conditions in financial markets generally; the Company's ability to attract and retain skilled staff; and market competition. We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors and assumptions is not exhaustive. There can be no assurance that the forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Fission to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including, without limitation: risks related to Fission's limited business history; that Fission has no history of mineral production or mining operations; discrepancies between actual and estimated mineral resources; risks caused by factors beyond Fission's control, such as uranium market price volatility, recovery rates of minerals from mined ore and demand for nuclear power; risks related to competition in the mineral industry; risk related to uranium industry competition and international trade restrictions; the potential deregulation of the electrical utility industry; competition of nuclear power with other energy sources; risks related to Fission's title to the PLS Property; risks related to dependence on key personnel; and risks of not meeting exploration budget forecasts. Although Fission has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual actions, events or results to differ materially from those described in forward-looking statements, there may be other factors that cause actions, events or results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this letter and, other than as required by applicable securities laws, Fission assumes no obligation to update or revise them to reflect new events or circumstances.
