

VANCOUVER, May 26, 2017 /CNW/ - Eco Oro Minerals Corp. ("Eco Oro" or the "Company") (TSX: EOM) announces that it has resolved the issues raised by Harrington Global Opportunities Fund Ltd. and Courtenay Wolfe regarding the recent grant of 2,150,000 options to directors and officers of the Company (the "Options") on May 8, 2017.

The parties have agreed that (i) Harrington and Ms. Wolfe will withdraw their request that the B.C. Securities Commission set aside the option grant, (ii) as already announced, 400,000 of the Options have been rescinded and the remaining Options will not be exercisable until following the next annual and special meeting of shareholders (the "Meeting") and (iii) all rights under the outstanding Options will terminate if the shareholders at the Meeting elect a majority of directors that are not nominees of the incumbent board. The 1,480,000 options granted to employees on May 8, 2017, which vest over a two-year period, are unaffected and will continue as granted.
