

Gold recovery expert Robert Garcia joins Mexus

16.10.2017 | GlobeNewswire

CABORCA, Mexico, Oct. 16, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Mexus Gold US (OTCQB:MXSG) ("Mexus" or the "Company") announced that it has retained gold recovery expert Robert Garcia to assist with an increase in production at the Santa Elena mine. To date, the recovery of gold via the Merrill Crowe system has not been adequate due to issues with the chemical analysis and flows. Mr. Robert Garcia is President of Auric Metallurgical Resources in Arizona and has extensive experience with mines and metallurgy. Mr. Garcia is evaluating and customizing the Merrill Crowe gold extraction plant which will help achieve maximum recovery.

Mr. Garcia commented, "After a couple of field trips observing and evaluating your projects in Mexico, they do appear to have significant potential to become profitable mining operations with growth potential once you have finished constructing the appropriate physical extraction plants and established the proper extraction protocols for the ore."

Mexus CEO Paul Thompson added, "Our output with the current Merrill Crowe recovery system isn't sufficient given what we have on the heap leach pad. Bringing Mr. Garcia to assist will help us achieve full production at the Santa Elena mine. We are currently implementing his recommendations and expect completion in the very near future."
