

Response to Press Release by Bougainville Copper Limited

14.12.2017 | FSCwire

Subiaco, Western Australia (FSCwire) - The Board of RTG Mining Inc. (TSX Code: RTG, ASX Code: RTG) refers to the recent press release dated 13 December 2017 by Bougainville Copper Ltd. which RTG considers to be misleading.

The BCL press release requiring clarification can be found here:

<http://www.bcl.com.pg/unscrupulous-campaign-bcl-exposed/>

In an effort to correct the false market announcement by BCL, RTG makes the following points:

- The previous dispute with respect to the challenge to the leadership has been resolved between Mr Miriori and Mr Daveona. Mr Daveona has acknowledged that Mr Miriori has been the Chairman of the Special Mining Lease Osikaiyang Landowners Association Inc. since December 2015 and remains the Chairman.
- Mr Miriori and the SMLOLA were the plaintiffs having brought the matter to the PNG National Court to resolve the issue and have the right to discontinue the proceeding. Following the settlement, we confirm that discontinuance papers have been filed with the National Court, bringing the matter to an end.
- At the Warden's Hearing, the Chief Mining Warden and a number of supporters of BCL referred to and acknowledged Mr Miriori as the Chairman of the SMLOLA.
- RTG is the nominated development partner in the joint venture agreement establishing Central Mekeamui Exploration Ltd, who has applied for an exploration licence over the old Panguna Mine and remains the only applicant with the support of the SMLOLA.

Many members of the SMLOLA oppose the return of BCL due to the environmental and social impact of BCL's previous operation at Panguna, and the fact that BCL has not paid compensation for those matters, which most members believe is owing. These factors obviously all predate, by decades, RTG's investment in the Landowner led consortium.
