Vancouver, January 8, 2026 - International Lithium Corp. (TSXV: ILC) (OTCQB: ILHMF) (FSE: IAH) (the "Company" or "ILC") is pleased to announce that, effective January 12, 2026, the Company will change its name from International Lithium Corp. to

ILC Critical Minerals Ltd.

Effective at the opening of trading on January 12, 2026, the common shares of the Company will commence trading on the TSX Venture Exchange under the new name. The trading symbol on TSXV will remain unchanged as "ILC". The Company's new CUSIP number will be 44967J107 and its new ISIN will be CA44967J1075. The Company will continue to refer to itself and to be known in communications as ILC as well as ILC Critical Minerals.

The share capital of the Company remains unchanged. The Company currently has 272,403,254 common shares issued and outstanding. Shareholders are not required to exchange their existing share certificates for new certificates bearing the Company's new name. Outstanding certificates representing common shares or warrants of International Lithium Corp. will continue to be valid and may be exchanged for certificates bearing the new name at any time.

All other corporate information, including the Company's business operations and its ongoing exploration and development activities, remains unchanged. The names of some of the Company's subsidiaries in Canada and overseas will be changed in line with this new name.

John Wisbey, Chairman of ILC, stated: "We still believe passionately in the future of lithium, a critical mineral vital to batteries for electric vehicles and battery energy storage systems, and we note with satisfaction the significant recovery in the lithium carbonate price by over 110% since June 30, 2025, while the price of spodumene with a 6% lithium oxide content (SC6) has risen by over 160% from its June 2025 low and has outperformed even silver in that same time. However in our present projects in Canada and our possible future projects in Southern Africa there are now significant quantities of other critical minerals such as rubidium, cesium and possibly copper, and the company's historic name no longer fully reflects the likely balance and economics of our future activities. So we felt it was time for a change."

"We will make a further announcement once the name has been changed detailing also our new website and email addresses and other relevant information."

On behalf of the Company,

John Wisbey
