Toronto, January 12, 2026 - Olive Resource Capital Inc. (TSXV: OC) ("Olive" or the "Company") is pleased to provide investors an update on its investments for the period ending December 31, 2025.

Derek Macpherson, the Company's Executive Chairman stated: "Olive's investors are now reaping the rewards of the work completed in 2022 and 2023 to reposition the Company's portfolio. The Company's assets rose 151% in 2025, and the share price increased 240% in 2025. Strong performance across the commodity complex in December resulted in a strong finish to the year strong, with assets up 11.2% for the month."

Samuel Pelaez, the Company's President, CEO, CIO, and Director stated: "December offered a continuation of the year's trends. Gold and copper rose strongly, with the equities outperforming the commodity. In oil, both commodity and equities dropped. For the full year, gold led the major commodity complex with a record gain of 65%; copper played catch up with a 41% gain; and oil dropped for a third consecutive year posting an 18% retracement. At Olive, we are well deployed into the first months of the new year, which are historically associated with strong performance for the entire commodity complex."
